GENERAL WARNINGS AND GUIDELINES

Martial Arts sparring may be dangerous; participants risk serious injury, disability and death. RINGSTAR sparring equipment is intended only to reduce the risk and severity of accidental injury to covered areas during supervised, no contact or light contact martial arts sparring. Light contact (blunt force) does not cause pain, injury, penetration, or visible movement of the opponent receiving the technique. Use of RINGSTAR sparring equipment does not eliminate risks of injury. USER ASSUMES ALL RISKS.

RINGSTAR equipment is for martial arts sparring only. It is not intended for other or more intense uses (e.g., full contact sparring, boxing, bag work, weapons training, sports activities, or use as a protective device for medical conditions, etc.). RINGSTAR may modify and improve its sparring equipment, but such modifications are not intended to encourage more intense contact.

RINGSTAR equipment should be used only under the supervision of a skilled instructor who responsibly monitors techniques and intensity of sparring and assures that students are properly trained and physically conditioned. All sparring participants should: wear a full set of equipment (minimum: head gear, foot gear, hand gear, chest guard, shin guards, mouth guard or jaw joint protector, and groin protection); read and follow instructions about its use and care; and not use old, modified, damaged or improperly fitted equipment.

ADVERTENCIA: La práctica del sparring puede ser peligrosa; las personas que practican este deporte corren el riesgo de sufrir lesiones graves, impedimentos físicos y de perder la vida. El equipo de sparring RINGSTAR ha sido diseñado para reducir el riesgo y la magnitud de las lesiones accidentales, en las regiones del cuerpo que el equipo protege, durante la práctica del sparring sin contacto corporal directo o con contacto directo leve durante sesiones supervisadas. En el sparring de contacto corporal leve el objetivo no es causar dolor o lesiones al adversario. El uso del equipo de sparring RINGSTAR no elimina el riesgos de lesiones o impedimentos físicos. Por lo tanto, las personas que usen este equipo deben hacerlo por su propia cuenta y riesgo, asumiendo la responsabilidad por cualquier daño físico o lesión que puedan sufrir durante el ejercicio del sparring.

El equipo RINGSTAR está diseñado solo para el sparring de artes marciales exclusivamente. Este equipo no está diseñado para otros usos más intensos (eje: sparring de cuerpo a cuerpo, boxeo, entrenamiento con bolsas, entrenamiento con armas, otras actividades, usos deportivos, etc.). RINGSTAR puede modificar o perfeccionar su equipo de sparring. Sin embargo, tales modificaciones no están echas con el propósito de fomentar un contacto más intenso durante la práctica del sparring.

El equipo RINGSTAR debe ser usado exclusivamente en sesiones de sparring supervisadas por instructores acreditados que posean las destrezas y el conocimiento adecuado para supervisar el ejercicio de este deporte. Los instructores deben tener entrenamiento en el control de las técnicas y la intensidad del sparring; deben cerciorarse de que los estudiantes sean entrenados en forma correcta y que se encuentren en buena condición física. Todos los participantes en el sparring deben adoptar las siguientes medidas de seguridad: Usar un equipo completo (como mínimo éste debe consistir de: casco protector, protectores de pies, protectores de manos, protectores de pecho, protectores para canillas, protectores para la boca, y protectores de la ingle.) Leer y seguir las instrucciones respecto al uso y el cuidado del equipo. No se deben usar equipos viejos o cuya condición original haya sido modificada, equipos en malas condiciones, o equipos que no se ajusten al cuerpo de la persona.

NOTIFICACIÓN: RINGSTAR no ofrece ninguna garantía explícita. Las garantías implícitas de COMERCIABILIDAD y de IDONEIDAD se excluyen y se rechazan. 9.07.05

⚠ WARNING

Read all warnings and instructions before use, including the back cover. Keep for reference by all users for the life of the gear. Failure to follow directions may result in injury, disability, and death.

- Wear Ringstar Martial Arts Shoes only to reduce the risk and severity of accidental injury from no contact to light contact Martial Arts sparring supervised by a qualified instructor. No gear can prevent all injuries; Ringstar does not guarantee protection.
- Properly size, fit, position, and secure your gear to optimize protection.
- Tuck the shoe laces securely inside the flaps to avoid possibly injury, especially to the eyes, of your opponent.
- If gear becomes dislodged or a flap becomes loose or unfastened during use, stop immediately, re-position and re-secure it before continuing.
- Inspect the shoes before and after each use. If they become damaged in any way, or excessively worn, discard and replace them immediately. Signs of damage and excessive wear include: shoe is torn; sole separates from upper; foam is compressed; stitching is loose; laces are loose or detached; hook/loop fasteners have lost "grab."
- Wear indoors only. Any use on hard, rough surfaces will damage the soles.
- Do not use Ringstar Shoes for other purposes, including other sports such as boxing, basketball and soccer, or as protective medical devices.
- User assumes all risks of injury.
